

This plumbing summary must include all plumbing fixtures being planned for the project.

Include the number of all plumbing fixtures that are to be added, removed, relocated or replaced below:

	Adding	Removing	Relocating	Replacing
Bar sink
Bathtub or tub/shower combo
Clinic sink
Clothes washer
Dishwasher
Drinking fountain (each hi-lo fountain counts as 1)
Floor drain
Floor sink
Hose bib
Kitchen sink (dual faucet)
Kitchen sink (single faucet)
Laundry sink
Lavatories (bathroom sink)
Mop sink
Shower per head
Urinal
Washup/Handwash sink
Water closet (toilet)
Multi-family ONLY Number of units
Pool/Hot tub SQFT
Other- Notes:

Notes

Difference between a clinic sink and hand wash sink? -A clinic sink is also known as a surgical sink. Generally found in a hospital setting. Smaller sinks in exam rooms or hand wash sinks.

Multi-Family permits, enter in the number of units in the “adding” column.

Pool assessments, enter in the square footage of the pool and hot tub (if applicable) in the “adding” column.

